Asset Purchase Agreement with Parascript, LLC

On July 13, 2006, Mitek Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Mitek”) entered into a definitive Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Agreement”) with Parascript LLC., a Wyoming limited liability company (“Parascript”), pursuant to which Mitek will acquire substantially all of the assets and liabilities of Parascript (the “Transaction”). Upon closing, Mitek will change its name to Parascript.

At the closing of the Transaction, Parascript unit owners will receive $80 million in cash and approximately 52 million shares of Mitek common stock. Mitek common stock having a value of approximately $4 million will be placed in escrow to secure any indemnity claims that Mitek may have under the Agreement, which escrow will generally last until one year after the effective time of the Transaction.

Mitek and Parascript have made customary representations and warranties and covenants in the Agreement. The Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Mitek and Parascript and further provides that upon termination of the Agreement under specified circumstances parties may be required to pay a termination fee of up to $1,000,000.

The closing of the Transaction is subject to various closing conditions, including approval of the Agreement by the stockholders of Mitek and the unitholders of Parascript, regulatory approvals and the satisfaction or waiver of other customary conditions. In addition, the closing is conditioned on the effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by Mitek.

Funding for the Transaction is to be provided by a combination of $35 million in subordinated convertible notes and $55 million in senior debt from Plainfield Asset Management, LLC (“Plainfield”). The subordinated notes will be convertible into approximately 21.9 million shares of Mitek common stock at a conversion price of $1.60 per share. From the remaining funds obtained from Plainfield, it is anticipated that approximately $9 million will be used for expenses related to the Transaction and $1 million will be used for general working capital purposes. In addition, Plainfield will provide a revolving line of credit for up to $5 million. Upon completion of the Transaction and on a fully-diluted basis, Mitek shareholders will own approximately 22% of the company, Parascript unitholders approximately 55% and Plainfield approximately 23% on an as-if-converted basis.

After the closing of the Transaction, the executive offices will be located in Boulder, Colorado. The board of directors will be composed of seven (7) members, including, Mitek’s President and Chief Executive Officer James DeBello, Parascript’s President Jeffrey Gilb, Mitek’s Chairman John M. Thornton, and Parascript’s Chairman Aron Katz, who will be Chairman of Mitek post-closing. Also included will be three (3) independent directors to be mutually agreed upon who meet the independence requirements of NASDAQ.

The foregoing description of the Transaction and the Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference. The Agreement has been included to provide investors and stockholders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Mitek or Parascript. The Agreement contains representations and warranties that the parties to the Agreement made to and solely for the benefit of each other, and the assertions embodied in such representations and warranties are qualified by information contained in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with signing the Agreement. Accordingly, investors and stockholders should not rely on such representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or circumstances, since they were only made as of the date of the Agreement and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules.

Additional Information

The Registration Statement will include a related joint proxy statement/prospectus. Mitek stockholders are urged to read the joint proxy statement/prospectus regarding the proposed Transaction when it becomes available, because it will contain important information. Mitek stockholders will be able to obtain a free copy of the proxy statement/prospectus (when available), as well as other filings containing information about Mitek, without charge, at the SEC's internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>). In addition, investors and security holders may obtain free copies of the documents filed with the SEC by Mitek by directing a request to Mitek Systems, Inc., 8911 Balboa Ave, Suite B, San Diego, California, 92123. The respective directors and executive officers of Mitek and other persons may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the proposed Transaction. Information regarding Mitek's directors and executive officers is available in its Form 10-KSB for the year ended September 30, 2005, filed with the SEC. Other information regarding the participants in the proxy solicitation and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be contained in the proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant materials to be filed with the SEC when they become available.

On July 14, 2006, Mitek issued a press release announcing that it has entered into the Agreement with Parascript. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.2.

3.13 Taxes.

(a) Tax Returns Filed and Taxes Paid. Seller has filed or caused to be filed on a timely basis all Tax Returns and all reports with respect to Taxes that are or were required to be filed by Seller pursuant to applicable Legal Requirements, except where the failure to so file would not have a Seller Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in Part 3.13(a), all Tax Returns and reports filed by Seller are true, correct and complete in all material respects. Seller has paid, or made provision for the payment of, all material Taxes that have or may have become due for all periods covered by the Tax Returns or otherwise, or pursuant to any assessment received by Seller, except such Taxes, if any, as are being contested in good faith. Except as provided in Part 3.13(a), Seller currently is not the beneficiary of any extension of time within which to file any Tax Return. No claim has ever been made or is expected to be made by any Governmental Body in a jurisdiction where Seller does not file Tax Returns that it is or may be subject to taxation by that jurisdiction. There are no Encumbrances on any of the Assets that arose in connection with any failure (or alleged failure) to pay any Tax and Seller has no Knowledge of any basis for assertion of any claims attributable to Taxes which, if adversely determined, would result in any such Encumbrance except as provided in Part 3.13(a).

(b) Delivery of Tax Returns and Information Regarding Audits and Potential Audits. The Seller Data Room contains copies and a list of all of Seller's Tax Returns filed since January 1, 2003. The federal and state income or franchise Tax Returns of Seller have been audited by the IRS or relevant state tax authorities or are closed by the applicable statute of limitations for all taxable years through January 1, 2003. The Seller Data Room contains a list of all Tax Returns of Seller that have been audited after January 1, 2003 or are currently under audit and accurately describes any deficiencies or other amounts that were paid or are currently being contested. No undisclosed deficiencies are expected to be asserted with respect to any such audit. All deficiencies proposed as a result of such audits have been paid, reserved against, settled or are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings as described in Part 3.13(b). The Seller Data Room contains copies of any examination reports, statements or deficiencies or similar items with respect to such audits. Except as provided in Part 3.13(b), to the Knowledge of Seller, no Governmental Body is likely to assess any additional taxes for any period for which Tax Returns have been filed. There is no dispute or claim concerning any Taxes of Seller claimed or raised by any Governmental Body in writing. Seller has not extended the applicable statute of limitations on any Tax Return. Except as described in Part 3.13(b), Seller has not given or been requested to give waivers or extensions (or is or would be subject to a waiver or extension given by any other Person) of any statute of limitations relating to the payment of Taxes of Seller or for which Seller may be liable.

(c) Specific Potential Tax Liabilities and Tax Situations.

(i) Withholding. Except as provided in Part 3.13(c)(i), to such Seller's Knowledge, all Taxes that Seller is or was required by Legal Requirements to withhold, deduct or collect have been duly withheld, deducted and collected and, to the extent required, have been paid to the proper Governmental Body or other Person except where the failure to do so would not have a material adverse effect on Seller.

(ii) Tax Sharing or Similar Agreements. There is no tax sharing agreement, tax allocation agreement, tax indemnity obligation or similar written or unwritten agreement, arrangement, understanding or practice with respect to Taxes (including any advance pricing agreement, closing agreement or other arrangement relating to Taxes) that will require any payment by Seller.

(iii) Substantial Understatement Penalty. Seller has disclosed on its federal income Tax Returns all positions taken therein that could give rise to a substantial understatement of federal income Tax within the meaning of Code Section 6662, except where the failure to do so would not have a Seller Material Adverse Effect.

3.14 No Material Adverse Change. To the Knowledge of Seller, since the date of the Seller Balance Sheet, there has not been any material adverse change in the business, operations, Assets, results of operations or condition (financial or other) of Seller, and no event has occurred or circumstance exists within the control of Seller that would result in such a material adverse change.

3.15 Employee Benefits. For the purposes of this Section 3.15 a reference to Seller will also include Manager, as appropriate.

(a) The Seller Data Room contains a list of all of Seller's "employee benefit plans" as defined by Section 3(3) of ERISA, all specified fringe benefit plans as defined in Section 6039D of the Code, and all other bonus, incentive-compensation, deferred-compensation, profit-sharing, stock-option, stock-appreciation-right, stock-bonus, stock-purchase, employee-stock-ownership, savings, severance, change-in-control, supplemental-unemployment, layoff, salary-continuation, retirement, pension, health, life-insurance, disability, accident, group-insurance, vacation, holiday, sick-leave, fringe-benefit or welfare plan, and any other employee compensation or benefit plan, agreement, policy, practice, commitment, contract or understanding (whether qualified or nonqualified, subject to ERISA or not, defined under Section 3(3) of ERISA or not, currently effective or terminated, written or unwritten) and any trust, escrow or other agreement related thereto that (i) is maintained or contributed to by Seller or any other corporation, entity or trade or business controlled by, controlling or under common control with Seller (within the meaning of Section 414 of the Code or Section 4001(a)(14) or 4001(b) of ERISA) ("ERISA Affiliate") or has been maintained or contributed to in the last six (6) years by Seller or any ERISA Affiliate, or that the Seller or any ERISA Affiliate has committed to implement, establish, adopt or contribute to in the future (other than Seller Employee Plans implemented or established pursuant to this Agreement) or with respect to which Seller or any ERISA Affiliate has or may have any liability, and (ii) provides benefits, or describes policies or procedures applicable to any current or former director, officer, employee or service provider of Seller or any ERISA Affiliate, or the dependents of any thereof, regardless of how (or whether) liabilities for the provision of benefits are accrued or assets are acquired or dedicated with respect to the funding thereof (collectively the "Seller Employee Plans"). Such list identifies as such any Seller Employee Plan that is a plan intended to meet the requirements of Section 401(a) of the Code. Such list also sets forth a complete and correct list of all ERISA Affiliates of Seller during the last six (6) years.

(b) Except as disclosed in Part 3.15(b), neither the Seller nor its ERISA Affiliates are or have ever maintained or been obligated to contribute to a multiple employer plan (as defined in Section 413(c) of the Code), a multiemployer plan (as defined in Section 3(37) of ERISA), a defined benefit pension plan (as defined in Section 3(35) of ERISA) subject to Title IV of ERISA, a Benefit Plan subject to the minimum funding standards under Section 302 of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code, a Benefit Plan that owns employer stock or a Benefit Plan that is funded, in whole or in part, through a voluntary employees' beneficiary association exempt from Tax under Section 501(c)(9) of the Code.

(c) The Seller Data Room contains copies of (i) the documents comprising each Seller Employee Plan (or, with respect to any Seller Employee Plan which is unwritten, a detailed written description of eligibility, participation, benefits, funding arrangements, assets and any other matters which relate to the obligations of Seller or any ERISA Affiliate); (ii) all trust agreements, insurance contracts or any other funding instruments related to the Seller Employee Plans; (iii) all rulings, determination letters, no-action letters or advisory opinions from the IRS, the U.S. Department of Labor or any other Governmental Body that pertain to each Seller Employee Plan and any open requests therefor; (iv) the most recent financial reports (audited and/or unaudited) and the annual reports filed with any Government Body with respect to the Seller Employee Plans during the current year and each of the three preceding years; (v) all contracts with third-party administrators, investment managers, consultants and other independent contractors that relate to any Seller Employee Plan, and (vi) all summary plan descriptions, summaries of material modifications and memoranda, employee handbooks and other written communications regarding the Seller Employee Plans.

Seller has paid in full all required insurance premiums, subject only to normal retrospective adjustments in the ordinary course, with regard to the Seller Employee Plans for all policy years or other applicable policy periods ending on or before the Closing Date.

(e) Neither Seller nor any ERISA Affiliate has any liability and no facts or circumstances exist that would give rise to any liability (either directly or as a result of indemnification), and the Contemplated Transactions will not result in any liability, (i) for any excise tax imposed by Section 4971 through Section 4980B, Section 4999, Section 5000 or any other Section of the Code, (ii) any penalty under Section 502(i), Section 502(l), Part 6 of Title I or any other provision of ERISA, (iii) any excise taxes, penalties, damages or equitable relief as a result of any prohibited transaction, breach of fiduciary duty or other violation under ERISA, the Code or any other applicable law. No Seller Employee Plan has been completely or partially terminated.

(f) Seller has, at all times, complied, and currently complies, in all material respects with the applicable continuation requirements for its welfare benefit plans, including (i) Section 4980B of the Code (as well as its predecessor provision, Section 162(k) of the Code) and Sections 601 through 608, inclusive, of ERISA, and any similar state law, which provisions are hereinafter referred to collectively as "COBRA" and (ii) any applicable state statutes mandating health insurance continuation coverage for employees.

(g) Except as provided in Part 3.15(g), the form of all Seller Employee Plans is in material compliance with the applicable terms of ERISA, the Code, and any other applicable laws, including the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Family Medical Leave Act of 1993 and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, and such plans have been operated in material compliance with such laws and the written Seller Employee Plan documents. Neither Seller nor any fiduciary of any Seller Employee Plan has committed a material violation of the requirements of Section 404 of ERISA. Each Seller Employee Plan has been maintained, operated, and administered in material compliance with its terms and any related documents or agreements and the applicable provisions of ERISA, the Code and any other applicable laws, including, but not limited to, rules and regulations promulgated by the Department of Labor, the PBGC and the Department of Treasury. All required reports and descriptions of the Seller Employee Plans (including Internal Revenue Service Form 5500 Annual Reports, Summary Annual Reports and Summary Plan Descriptions and Summaries of Material Modifications) have been (when required) timely filed with the IRS, the U.S. Department of Labor or other Governmental Body and distributed as required, and all notices required by ERISA or the Code or any other Legal Requirement with respect to the Seller Employee Plans have been appropriately given. No Seller Employee Plan is presently under audit or examination (nor has notice been received of a potential audit or examination) by the IRS, the U.S. Department of Labor or any other Governmental Body, and no matters are pending with respect to a Seller Employee Plan under the IRS Voluntary Correction Program, Audit Closing Agreement Program, or other similar programs.

(h) Each Seller Employee Plan that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code is either a prototype plan entitled to rely on the opinion letter issued by the IRS as to the qualified status of such Seller Employee Plan under Section 401(a) of the Code to the extent provided in Revenue Procedure 2005-16 or has received a favorable determination letter from the IRS, and, to the Knowledge of Seller, no circumstances exist that will result in a Seller Material Adverse Effect as a result of such reliance or would result in revocation of any such favorable determination letter. Each trust created under any Seller Employee Plan has been determined to be exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code, and Seller is not aware of any circumstance that will or would result in a revocation of such exemption. With respect to each Seller Employee Plan, to the Knowledge of Seller, no event has occurred or condition exists that will or would give rise to a loss of any intended material tax consequence or to any material Tax under Section 511 of the Code.

(i) Any Seller Employee Plan that is a “nonqualified deferred compensation plan” (as defined in Section 409A(d)(1) of the Code): (A) has been operated since January 1, 2005 in good faith compliance in all material respects with Section 409A of the Code, IRS Notice 2005-1, and the proposed regulations under Section 409A of the Code; (B) has not been materially modified (as determined under the proposed regulations) after October 3, 2004, if it was in effect prior to January 1, 2005; (C) has not participated in a transaction that would be treated by Section 409A(b) of the Code as a transfer of property for purposes of Section 83 of the Code; and (D) does not have a stock option, equity unit option, or stock appreciation right granted under the Seller Employee Plan with an exercise price or measurement floor that has been or may be less than the fair market value of the underlying stock or equity units (as the case may be) as of the date such option or stock appreciation right was granted or has any feature for the deferral of compensation other than the deferral of recognition of income until the later of exercise or disposition of such option or stock appreciation right.

(j) There is no material pending or, to Seller’s Knowledge, threatened, Proceeding (other than routine claims for benefits in Seller’s Ordinary Course of Business) relating to any Seller Employee Plan, nor is there any basis for any such Proceeding.

(k) Seller has maintained workers' compensation coverage as required by applicable state law through purchase of insurance and not by self-insurance or otherwise except as disclosed to Buyer on Part 3.15(k).

(l) Except as required by Legal Requirements, the consummation of the Contemplated Transactions will not (i) entitle any current or former employee of the Seller to severance pay, unemployment compensation or any other payment, benefit or award or (ii) accelerate the time of vesting or the time of payment, or increase the amount, of compensation due to any director, employee, officer, former employee or former officer of Seller. There are no contracts or arrangements providing for payments that could subject any person to liability for tax under Section 4999 of the Code. No contribution, premium payment or other payment has been or will be made in support of any Seller Employee Plan that is in excess of the allowable deduction for federal income Tax purposes for the year with respect to which the contribution was made or will be made (whether under Section 162, Section 280G, Section 404, Section 419, Section 419A of the Code or otherwise).

(n) Except as necessary to implement the Contemplated Transaction, including the AIS Separation, none of the Contemplated Transactions will result in an amendment, modification or termination of any of the Seller Employee Plans. No written representations have been made to any employee or former employee of Seller promising or guaranteeing any employer payment or funding for the continuation of medical, dental, life or disability coverage for any period of time beyond the end of the current plan year (except to the extent of coverage required under COBRA). No written representations have been made to any employee or former employee of Seller concerning the employee benefits of Buyer.

(b) As of its respective date, each Buyer SEC Document complied in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act or the Securities Act, as the case may be, and the rules and regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder applicable to such Buyer SEC Document, and did not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Except to the extent that information contained in any Buyer SEC Document has been revised or superseded by a later filed Buyer SEC Document, none of the Buyer SEC Documents contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The consolidated financial statements of Buyer included in the Buyer SEC Documents comply as to form in all material respects with applicable accounting requirements and the published rules and regulations of the SEC with respect thereto, have been prepared in accordance with GAAP (except, in the case of unaudited statements, as permitted by Form 10-QSB of the SEC) applied on a consistent basis during the periods involved (except as may be indicated in the notes thereto) and fairly present the consolidated financial position of Buyer as of the dates thereof and the consolidated results of its operations and cash flows for the periods shown (subject, in the case of unaudited statements, to normal year-end audit adjustments). The principal executive officer of Buyer and the principal financial officer of Buyer have made all certifications required by Sections 302 and 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules and regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder (the “Sarbanes-Oxley Act”) with respect to the Buyer SEC Documents. For purposes of the preceding sentence, “principal executive officer” and “principal financial officer” shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. As used in this Section 5.26, the term “file” shall be broadly construed to include any manner in which a document or information is furnished, supplied or otherwise made available to the SEC.

5.27 NASDAQ Listing. Buyer represents that shares of Common Stock were delisted from the NASDAQ SmallCap Market following a hearing before a Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel on April 22, 2004, and that Nasdaq informed Buyer the delisting was due to Buyer’s failure to satisfy the $2.5 million shareholder’s equity requirement as of December 31, 2003. Buyer further represents that it knows of no other reasons for delisting or impediments to relisting other than the normal requirements of the NASDAQ SmallCap Market.

5.28 The Buyer Data Room. The Buyer has established a limited access, coded data room through the services of Merrill Corporation as a repository for certain of Buyer’s documents and information in electronically readable and retrievable form. The phrase “The Buyer Data Room contains. . .” means that the document, list, schedule or other information or matter referred to as being contained in the Buyer Data Room is a true and complete copy of the original of the referenced document, is a complete and accurate listing, schedule or other presentation of information or matter to which reference is made (unless otherwise clearly noted or explained in such reference), is listed in and may be located by referring to the index for the contents of the Buyer Data Room and is readable by computer access and may be reproduced in full by printer.

5.29 Disclosure. No representation or warranty or other statement made by Buyer in this Agreement, the Buyer Disclosure Letter, any supplement to the Buyer Disclosure Letter, any certificate delivered by Buyer pursuant to this Agreement and any information provided by Buyer for use in the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement or otherwise in connection with the Contemplated Transactions contains any untrue statement or omits to state a material fact necessary to make any of them, in light of the circumstances in which it was made, not misleading.

Should any such fact or condition require any change to the Seller Disclosure Letter, Seller shall promptly deliver to Buyer a supplement to the Seller Disclosure Letter specifying such change. Such delivery shall not affect any rights of Buyer under Sections 11.2 (Effect of Termination), 11.3 (Fees, Expenses and Other Payments) or Article 14 (Indemnification; Remedies). 6.6 No Shopping. Until such time as this Agreement shall be terminated pursuant to Section 11.1, Seller shall not, and shall cause Seller's Representatives not to, directly or indirectly solicit, initiate, encourage or entertain any inquiries or proposals from, discuss or negotiate with, provide any nonpublic information to or consider the merits of any inquiries or proposals from any Person (other than Buyer) relating to any Acquisition Proposal. Seller shall notify Buyer of any such inquiry or proposal within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt or awareness of the same by Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the approval of this Agreement by the Members of such Seller, this Section 6.6 shall not prohibit Seller from furnishing nonpublic information regarding Seller to, or entering into discussions with, any person, group or entity in response to any such inquiry or proposal that is submitted to Seller by such person, group or entity (and not withdrawn) if the boards of directors (or similar governing body) of the Seller concludes in good faith, after having taken into account the advice of its outside legal counsel, that such action is required in order for the board of directors (or similar governing body) of Seller to comply with its fiduciary obligations to the Seller's Members under applicable Law.

6.7 Best Efforts. Seller shall use its Best Efforts to cause the conditions in Article 9 to be satisfied.

6.8 Interim Financial Statements. Until the Closing Date, Seller shall deliver to Buyer within ten (10) days after the end of each month a copy of the Seller's unaudited financial statements for such month prepared in a manner and containing

6.9 Payment of Liabilities. Seller shall pay or otherwise satisfy in the Ordinary Course of Business all of its Liabilities as such Liabilities become due and payable. 7. ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS.

7.1 Preparation of the Proxy Statement; Buyer Stockholders Meeting; Seller Members Meeting.

(a) As soon as practicable following the date of this Agreement, Buyer shall, with the cooperation and participation of Seller, which shall include the prompt provision of information reasonably requested by Buyer, prepare and after receipt of approval by Seller which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, file with the SEC the proxy statement in preliminary form (the "Proxy Statement"), and each of the Seller and Buyer shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to respond as promptly as practicable to any comments of the SEC with respect thereto. Buyer shall after consultation with the Seller, respond promptly to any comments made by the SEC with respect to the Registration Statement. Buyer shall allow the Seller's full participation in the preparation of the Registration Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto and shall consult with Seller and its advisors concerning any comments from the SEC with respect thereto.

(c) If, prior to the Closing, any event occurs with respect to Seller, or any change occurs with respect to other information supplied by Seller for inclusion in the Proxy Statement or Registration Statement, which is required to be described in an amendment of, or a supplement to, the Proxy Statement or Registration Statement, Seller shall promptly notify Buyer of such event, and Seller and Buyer shall cooperate in the prompt filing with the SEC of any necessary amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement or Registration Statement and, as required by Law, in disseminating the information contained in such amendment or supplement to Buyer's stockholders.

(d) If, prior to the Closing, any event occurs with respect to Buyer, or any change occurs with respect to other information supplied by Buyer for inclusion in the Proxy Statement or Registration Statement, which is required to be described in an amendment of, or a supplement to, the Proxy Statement or Registration Statement, Buyer shall promptly notify Seller of such event, and Buyer and Seller shall cooperate in the prompt filing with the SEC of any necessary amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement or Registration Statement and, as required by Law, in disseminating the information contained in such amendment or supplement to Buyer's stockholders.

(e) Buyer shall, promptly after the date hereof, take all action necessary to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders (the "Buyer Stockholders Meeting") as soon as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective. Buyer shall use its Best Efforts to cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to the Buyer's stockholders as soon as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective. Buyer shall, through its board of directors, recommend to its stockholders that they approve the Contemplated Transactions, the Asset Purchase, the Mitek Name Change, the Amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation increasing the number of authorized shares of the Buyer's common stock from 40,000,000 to 200,000,000 (as such number may be proportionally adjusted as a result of the reverse stock split referred to in Section 12.1) and the composition of the Board of Directors as set forth in Section 10.11, the amendment of the current Mitek Systems, Inc. 2006 Stock Option Plan or adoption of a new stock option plan that increases the number of shares of Buyer common stock available thereunder to 23,000,000 (as such number may be proportionally adjusted as a result of the reverse stock split referred to in Section 12.1) shares, except to the extent that Buyer's board of directors shall have withdrawn its approval or recommendation of this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, which withdrawal may be made only if deemed by Buyer's board of directors to be necessary in order to comply with its fiduciary duties. Notwithstanding any other provision thereof, Buyer shall not be restricted from complying with any of its obligations under the Exchange Act.

(f) Seller shall take all action necessary to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its Members (the "Seller Meeting"), as soon as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective. Seller shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Proxy Statement to be mailed to the Members as soon as practicable after the Registration Statement is declared effective. Seller shall, through its Manager or equivalent governing body, recommend to the Members that they approve the Contemplated Transactions and the Parascript Name Change, except to the extent that Seller's Manager or equivalent governing body shall have withdrawn its approval or recommendation of this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, which withdrawal may be made only if deemed by Seller's Manager or equivalent governing body to be necessary in order to comply with its fiduciary duties.

7.2 Initial Disclosure Letter. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Seller shall deliver a Seller Disclosure Letter to Buyer and Buyer shall deliver a Buyer Disclosure Letter to Seller. Such Seller Disclosure Letter and Buyer Disclosure Letter (each an “Initial Disclosure Letter” and collectively, the “Initial Disclosure Letters”) shall (i) be arranged in sections and subsections corresponding to the sections and subsections contained in Sections 3 and 5, respectively, and the disclosure in any section or subsection of the Initial Disclosure Letters shall qualify only the corresponding section or subsection in Section 3 or Section 5, as the case may be, unless it is reasonably apparent that the disclosure in any section or subsection of such Initial Disclosure Letters should apply to one or more other sections or subsections thereof, (ii) constitute representations and warranties of the respective parties, and (iii) be updated, amended and supplemented, as appropriate through the Supplemental Disclosure Letter(s) (as defined below) through the Closing, so that the Seller Disclosure Letter and Buyer Disclosure Letter shall, as of the Closing, contain accurate, true and correct information and data, and shall be executed by Seller, on one hand, or the Buyer on the other, and dated the Closing Date. Terms used and defined in this Agreement shall have the same definition when used in the Initial Disclosure Letter and the Supplemental Disclosure Letter. If there is any inconsistency between the statements in this Agreement and those in such Disclosure Letter (other than an exception expressly set forth as such in such Disclosure Letter with respect to a specifically identified representation or warranty), the statements in this Agreement will control.

7.3 Supplemental Disclosure Letter. Seller and Buyer agree that, with respect to their respective Initial Disclosure Letter, they shall have the continuing obligation until the Closing Date to supplement, modify or amend promptly their respective Initial Disclosure Letter with respect to (a) any matter occurring after the date hereof that, if existing or occurring on or before the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in the Initial Disclosure Letter (the “New Matters”), and (b) other matters which are not New Matters but should have been set forth or described in the Initial Disclosure Letter as of the date hereof (the “Other Matters”). Any such supplement, modification or amendment (each a “Supplemental Disclosure Letter” and, collectively, the “Supplemental Disclosure Letters”) (i) that reflects a New Matter shall qualify the representations and warranties of Seller or Buyer, as the case may be, for all purposes of this Agreement, and (ii) that reflects one or more Other Matters shall not qualify any of the representations or warranties of Seller or Buyer, as the case may be, for any purpose under this Agreement, and shall be provided solely for informational purposes and (iii) shall constitute representations and warranties of the respective parties. On or before the Closing Date, Seller will prepare and deliver to Buyer and Buyer will prepare and deliver to Seller a copy of the Supplemental Disclosure Letter revised to reflect any supplement, modification or amendment required pursuant to this Section 7.3. Seller and Buyer shall deliver their respective Supplemental Disclosure Letter at least five (5) Business Days before the Closing Date. If no Supplemental Disclosure Letter satisfying the foregoing requirements is provided by Seller or Buyer, as the case may be, the Initial Disclosure Letter as delivered upon the execution of this Agreement shall continue to apply. If there is any inconsistency between the statements in this Agreement and those in such Disclosure Letter (other than an exception expressly set forth as such in such Disclosure Letter with respect to a specifically identified representation or warranty), the statements in this Agreement will control.

(b) If an Indemnified Person gives notice to the Indemnifying Person pursuant to Section 14.7(a) of the assertion of a Third-Party Claim, the Indemnifying Person shall be entitled to participate in the defense of such Third-Party Claim and, to the extent that it wishes, to assume the defense of such Third-Party Claim with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Person. After notice from the Indemnifying Person to the Indemnified Person of its election to assume the defense of such Third-Party Claim, the Indemnifying Person shall not, so long as it diligently conducts such defense, be liable to the Indemnified Person under this Article 14 for any fees of other counsel or any other expenses with respect to the defense of such Third-Party Claim, in each case subsequently incurred by the Indemnified Person in connection with the defense of such Third-Party Claim, other than reasonable costs of investigation directed by the Indemnifying Person to be performed. If the Indemnifying Person assumes the defense of a Third-Party Claim, no compromise or settlement of such Third-Party Claims may be effected by the Indemnifying Person without the Indemnified Person's Consent unless (A) the sole relief provided is monetary damages that are paid in full by the Indemnifying Person; and (B) the Indemnified Person shall have no liability with respect to any compromise or settlement of such Third-Party Claims effected without its Consent. If notice is given to an Indemnifying Person of the assertion of any Third-Party Claim and the Indemnifying Person does not, within ten (10) days after the Indemnified Person's notice is received by the Indemnifying Person, give notice to the Indemnified Person of its election to assume the defense of such Third-Party Claim, the Indemnifying Person will be bound by any determination made in such Third-Party Claim or any compromise or settlement effected by the Indemnified Person.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an Indemnified Person determines in good faith that there is a reasonable probability that a Third-Party Claim may materially adversely affect it or its Related Persons other than as a result of monetary damages for which it would be entitled to indemnification under this Agreement, the Indemnified Person may, by notice to the Indemnifying Person, assume the exclusive right to defend, compromise or settle such Third-Party Claim, but the Indemnifying Person will not be bound by any determination of any Third-Party Claim so defended for the purposes of this Agreement or any compromise or settlement effected without its Consent (which may not be unreasonably withheld) or be obligated in any way to indemnify.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 16.4, Seller hereby consents to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of any court in which a Proceeding in respect of a Third-Party Claim is brought against any Buyer Indemnified Person for purposes of any claim that a Buyer Indemnified Person may have under this Agreement with respect to such Proceeding or the matters alleged therein and agree that process may be served on Seller with respect to such a claim anywhere in the world.

(e) With respect to any Third-Party Claim subject to indemnification under this Article 14, (i) both the Indemnified Person and the Indemnifying Person, as the case may be, shall keep the other Person fully informed of the status of such Third-Party Claim and any related Proceedings at all stages thereof where such Person is not represented by its own counsel, and (ii) the parties agree (each at its own expense) to render to each other such assistance as they may reasonably require of each other and to cooperate in good faith with each other in order to ensure the proper and adequate defense of any Third-Party Claim.

(f) With respect to any Third-Party Claim subject to indemnification under this Article 14, the parties agree to cooperate in such a manner as to preserve in full (to the extent possible) the confidentiality of all Confidential Information and the attorney-client and work-product privileges. In connection therewith, each party agrees that: (i) it will use its Best Efforts, in respect of any Third-Party Claim in which it has assumed or participated in the defense, to avoid production of Confidential Information (consistent with applicable law and rules of procedure), and (ii) all communications between any party hereto and counsel responsible for or participating in the defense of any Third-Party Claim shall, to the extent possible, be made so as to preserve any applicable attorney-client or work-product privilege.

14.8 Other Claims. A claim for indemnification for any matter not involving a Third-Party Claim may be asserted by notice to the party from whom indemnification is sought and shall be paid promptly after such notice.

14.9 Waiver of Contribution and Indemnification. No Person satisfying or discharging an indemnification obligation under this Article 14 shall have a right of contribution or indemnification against any other Person and by executing this Agreement expressly waives such rights against any other Person who or which may have also joined in representations, warranties and/or covenants hereunder.

15. CONFIDENTIALITY.

15.1 Definition of Confidential Information

(a) As used in this Article 15, the term “Confidential Information” includes any and all of the following information of Seller or Buyer that has been or may hereafter be disclosed in any form, whether in writing, orally, electronically or otherwise, or otherwise made available by observation, inspection or otherwise by either party (Buyer on the one hand or Seller, collectively, on the other hand) or its Representatives (collectively, a “Disclosing Party”) to the other party or its Representatives (collectively, a “Receiving Party”):

(i) all information that is a trade secret under applicable trade secret or other law;

(ii) all information concerning product specifications, data, know-how, formulae, compositions, processes, designs, sketches, photographs, graphs, drawings, samples, inventions and ideas, past, current and planned research and development, current and planned manufacturing or distribution methods and processes, customer lists, current and anticipated customer requirements, price lists, market studies, business plans, computer hardware, Software and computer software and database technologies, systems, structures and architectures;

(iv) all notes, analyses, compilations, studies, summaries and other material prepared by the Receiving Party to the extent containing or based, in whole or in part, upon any information included in the foregoing.

(b) Any trade secrets of a Disclosing Party shall also be entitled to all of the protections and benefits under applicable trade secret law and any other applicable law. If any information that a Disclosing Party deems to be a trade secret is found by a court of competent jurisdiction not to be a trade secret for purposes of this Article 15, such information shall still be considered Confidential Information of that Disclosing Party for purposes of this Article 15 to the extent included within the definition. In the case of trade secrets, each of Buyer, Seller and Members hereby waives any requirement that the other party submit proof of the economic value of any trade secret or post a bond or other security.

15.2 Restricted Use Of Confidential Information.

(a) Each Receiving Party acknowledges the confidential and proprietary nature of the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party and agrees that such Confidential Information (i) shall be kept confidential by the Receiving Party; (ii) shall not be used for any reason or purpose other than to evaluate and consummate the Contemplated Transactions; and (iii) without limiting the foregoing, shall not be disclosed by the Receiving Party to any Person, except in each case as otherwise expressly permitted by the terms of this Agreement or with the prior written consent of an authorized representative of Seller with respect to Confidential Information of Seller (each, a "Seller Contact") or an authorized representative of Buyer with respect to Confidential Information of Buyer (each, a "Buyer Contact"). Each of Buyer and Seller shall disclose the Confidential Information of the other party only to its Representatives who require such material for the purpose of evaluating the Contemplated Transactions and are informed by Buyer or Seller, as the case may be, of the obligations of this Article 15 with respect to such information. Each of Buyer and Seller shall (iv) enforce the terms of this Article 15 as to its respective Representatives; (v) take such action to the extent necessary to cause its Representatives to comply with the terms and conditions of this Article 15; and (vi) be responsible and liable for any Breach of the provisions of this Article 15 by it or its Representatives.

(b) Unless and until this Agreement is terminated, Seller shall maintain as confidential any Confidential Information (including for this purpose any information of Seller of the type referred to in Sections 15.1(a)(i), 15.1(a)(ii) and 15.1(a)(iii)), whether or not disclosed to Buyer, of the Seller relating to any of the Assets or the Seller's Liabilities. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, Seller may use any Confidential Information of Seller before the Closing in the Ordinary Course of Business in connection with the transactions permitted by Section 6.2.

(c) From and after the Closing, the provisions of Section 15.2(a) above shall not apply to or restrict in any manner Buyer's use of any Confidential Information of the Seller relating to any of the Assets or the Seller's Liabilities.

15.3 Exceptions. Sections 15.2(a) and 15.2(b) do not apply to that part of the Confidential Information of a Disclosing Party that a Receiving Party demonstrates (a) was, is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a Breach of this Article 15 or the Confidentiality Agreement by the Receiving Party or its Representatives; (b) was or is developed by the Receiving Party independently of and without reference to any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party; or (c) was, is or becomes available to the Receiving Party on a nonconfidential basis from a Third Party not bound by a confidentiality agreement or any legal, fiduciary or other obligation restricting disclosure. Seller shall not disclose any Confidential Information of Seller relating to any of the Assets or the Seller's Liabilities in reliance on the exceptions in clauses (b) or (c) above.

15.4 Legal Proceedings. If a Receiving Party becomes compelled in any Proceeding or is requested by a Governmental Body having regulatory jurisdiction over the Contemplated Transactions to make any disclosure that is prohibited or otherwise constrained by this Article 15, that Receiving Party shall provide the Disclosing Party with prompt notice of such compulsion or request so that it may seek an appropriate protective order or other appropriate remedy or waive compliance with the provisions of this Article 15. In the absence of a protective order or other remedy, the Receiving Party may disclose that portion (and only that portion) of the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party that, based upon advice of the Receiving Party's counsel, the Receiving Party is legally compelled to disclose or that has been requested by such Governmental Body, provided, however, that the Receiving Party shall use reasonable efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded by any Person to whom any Confidential Information is so disclosed. The provisions of this Section 15.4 do not apply to any Proceedings between the parties to this Agreement.

15.5 Return or Destruction of Confidential Information. If this Agreement is terminated, each Receiving Party shall (a) destroy all Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party prepared or generated by the Receiving Party without retaining a copy of any such material; (b) promptly deliver to the Disclosing Party all other Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party, together with all copies thereof, in the possession, custody or control of the Receiving Party or, alternatively, with the written consent of a Seller Contact or a Buyer Contact (whichever represents the Disclosing Party) destroy all such Confidential Information; and (c) certify all such destruction in writing to the Disclosing Party, provided, however, that the Receiving Party may retain a list that contains general descriptions of the information it has returned or destroyed to facilitate the resolution of any controversies after the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information is returned.

15.6 Attorney-Client Privilege. The Disclosing Party is not waiving, and will not be deemed to have waived or diminished, any of its attorney work product protections, attorney-client privileges or similar protections and privileges as a result of disclosing its Confidential Information (including Confidential Information related to pending or threatened litigation) to the Receiving Party, regardless of whether the Disclosing Party has asserted, or is or may be entitled to assert, such privileges and protections. The parties (a) share a common legal and commercial interest in all of the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information that is subject to such privileges and protections; (b) are or may become joint defendants in Proceedings to which the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information covered by such protections and privileges relates; (c) intend that such privileges and protections remain intact should either party become subject to any actual or threatened Proceeding to which the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information covered by such protections and privileges relates; and (d) intend that after the Closing the Receiving Party shall have the right to assert such protections and privileges. No Receiving Party shall admit, claim or contend, in Proceedings involving either party or otherwise, that any Disclosing Party waived any of its attorney work-product protections, attorney-client privileges or similar protections and privileges with respect to any information, documents or other material not disclosed to a Receiving Party due to the Disclosing Party disclosing its Confidential Information (including Confidential Information related to pending or threatened litigation) to the Receiving Party.

16. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

16.1 Expenses. Each of Buyer and Seller shall bear and be responsible for its fees and Expenses in connection with the preparation and negotiation of this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, provided, however, in the event of the Closing, Buyer will bear its fees and Expenses and will pay Seller's fees and Expenses, each incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the Contemplated Transactions, including all fees and Expense of its or their Representatives, and the fees and Expenses of the escrow agent under the Escrow Agreement.

16.2 Public Announcements. Any public announcement, press release or similar publicity with respect to this Agreement or the Contemplated Transactions will be issued, if at all, at such time and in such manner as Buyer and Seller agree; provided, however, that if the parties have not or cannot agree to the content of an announcement by the date Buyer is obligated by Legal Requirements to disclose the substance of the disputed announcement, then Buyer shall be free to make such disclosure in such filing(s) as may be required of Buyer under such Legal Requirements. Except with the prior consent of Buyer or Seller, as applicable, or as otherwise required by law, neither Seller, Buyer nor any of their Representatives shall disclose to any Person (a) the fact that any Confidential Information of Seller or Members has been disclosed to Buyer or its Representatives, that Buyer or its Representatives have inspected any portion of the Confidential Information of Seller or Members, that any Confidential Information of Buyer has been disclosed to Seller, Members or their Representatives or that Seller, Members or their Representatives have inspected any portion of the Confidential Information of Buyer or (b) any information about the Contemplated Transactions, including the status of such discussions or negotiations, the execution of any documents (including this Agreement) or any of the terms of the Contemplated Transactions or the related documents (including this Agreement). Seller and Buyer will consult with each other concerning the means by which Seller's and Buyer's employees, customers, suppliers and others having dealings with Seller or Buyer will be informed of the Contemplated Transactions, and each of Seller and Buyer will have the right to be present for any such communication.

16.3 Notices. All notices, Consents, waivers and other communications required or permitted by this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given to a party when (a) delivered to the appropriate address by hand or by nationally recognized overnight courier service (costs prepaid); (b) sent by facsimile or e-mail with confirmation of transmission by the transmitting equipment; or (c) received or rejected by the addressee, if sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, in each case to the following addresses, facsimile numbers or e-mail addresses and marked to the attention of the Person (by name or title) designated below (or to such other address, facsimile number, e-mail address or Person as a party may designate by notice to the other parties):

16.4 Arbitration. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any related agreement shall be settled solely by arbitration in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) The agreement of the parties to arbitrate covers all disputes of every kind relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any related agreement or any of the Contemplated Transactions. Disputes include actions for breach of contract with respect to this Agreement or any related agreement, as well as any claim based upon tort or any other causes of action relating to the Contemplated Transactions, such as claims based upon an allegation of fraud or misrepresentation and claims based upon a federal or state statute. In addition, the arbitrators selected according to the procedures set forth below shall determine the arbitrability of any matter brought to them, and their decision shall be final and binding on the parties.

(b) The forum for the arbitration shall be Denver, Colorado.

(c) The governing law for the arbitration shall be the law of the State of Delaware, without reference to its conflicts of laws provisions.

(d) There shall be three arbitrators, unless the parties are able to agree on a single arbitrator. In the absence of such agreement within ten (10) days after the initiation of an arbitration proceeding, Seller shall select one arbitrator and Buyer shall select one arbitrator and those two arbitrators shall then select, within ten (10) days, a third arbitrator. If those two arbitrators are unable to select a third arbitrator within such ten (10) day period, a third arbitrator shall be appointed by the commercial panel of JAMS. The decision in writing of at least two of the three parties shall be final and binding on the parties.

(e) The arbitration shall be administered by JAMS.

(f) The rules of the arbitration shall be the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules of JAMS, as modified by any other instructions that the parties may agree upon at the time, except that each party shall have the right to conduct discovery in any manner and to the extent authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as interpreted by the federal courts. If there is any conflict between those Rules and the provisions of this Section, the provisions of this Section shall prevail.

(g) The arbitrators shall be bound by and shall strictly enforce the terms of this Agreement and may not limit, expand or otherwise modify its terms. The arbitrators shall make a good faith effort to apply substantive applicable law, but an arbitration decision shall not be subject to review because of errors of law. The arbitrators shall be bound to honor claims of privilege or work-product doctrine recognized at law, but the arbitrators shall have the discretion to determine whether any such claim of privilege or work-product doctrine applies.

(h) The arbitrators' decision shall provide a reasoned basis for the resolution of any dispute and any award. The arbitrators shall not have the power to award damages in connection with any dispute in excess of actual compensatory damages and shall not multiply actual damages or award consequential or punitive damages.

(i) Each party shall bear its own fees and expenses with respect to the arbitration and any proceeding related thereto and the parties shall share equally the fees of JAMS and the arbitrators.

(j) The arbitrators shall have power and authority to award any remedy or judgment that could be awarded by a court of law in the state of Colorado. The award rendered by arbitration shall be final and binding upon the parties, and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States.

16.5 Enforcement of Agreement. Seller on the one hand, and Buyer on the other hand, acknowledge and agree that the other party or parties would be irreparably damaged if any of the provisions of this Agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms and that any Breach of this Agreement by the other party or parties could not be adequately compensated in all cases by monetary damages alone. Accordingly, in addition to any other right or remedy to which the other party or parties may be entitled, at law or in equity, it shall be entitled to enforce any provision of this Agreement by a decree of specific performance and to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief to prevent Breaches or threatened Breaches of any of the provisions of this Agreement, without posting any bond or other undertaking.

16.6 Waiver; Remedies Cumulative. Except as otherwise provided for herein, the rights and remedies of the parties to this Agreement are cumulative and not alternative. Neither any failure nor any delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement or any of the documents referred to in this Agreement will operate as a waiver of such right, power or privilege, and no single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege will preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, (a) no claim or right arising out of this Agreement or any of the documents referred to in this Agreement can be discharged by one party, in whole or in part, by a waiver or renunciation of the claim or right unless in writing signed by the other party; (b) no waiver that may be given by a party will be applicable except in the specific instance for which it is given; and (c) no notice to or demand on one party will be deemed to be a waiver of any obligation of that party or of the right of the party giving such notice or demand to take further action without notice or demand as provided in this Agreement or the documents referred to in this Agreement.

16.7 Entire Agreement and Modification. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties with respect to its subject matter (including any letter of intent and any confidentiality agreement between Buyer and Seller) and constitutes (along with the Disclosure Letter, Exhibits and other documents delivered pursuant to this Agreement) a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter. This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified except by a written agreement executed by the party to be charged with the amendment.

16.8 Assignments, Successors and No Third-Party Rights. No party may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other parties, except that Buyer may assign any of its rights and delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement to any Subsidiary of Buyer and may collaterally assign its rights hereunder to any financial institution providing financing in connection with the Contemplated Transactions. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will apply to, be binding in all respects upon and inure to the benefit of the successors and permitted assigns of the parties. Nothing expressed or referred to in this Agreement will be construed to give any Person other than the parties to this Agreement any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or with respect to this Agreement or any provision of this Agreement, except such rights as shall inure to a successor or permitted assignee pursuant to this Section 16.8.

16.9 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect. Any provision of this Agreement held invalid or unenforceable only in part or degree will remain in full force and effect to the extent not held invalid or unenforceable.

16.10 Construction. The headings of Articles and Sections in this Agreement are provided for convenience only and will not affect its construction or interpretation. All references to “Articles,” “Sections” and “Parts” refer to the corresponding Articles, Sections and Parts of this Agreement and the Disclosure Letter.

16.11 Time of Essence. With regard to all dates and time periods set forth or referred to in this Agreement, time is of the essence.

16.12 Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed under the laws of the state of Delaware without regard to conflicts-of-laws principles that would require the application of any other law.

16.13 Execution of Agreement. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original copy of this Agreement and all of which, when taken together, will be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement. The exchange of copies of this Agreement and of signature pages by facsimile transmission shall constitute effective execution and delivery of this Agreement as to the parties and may be used in lieu of the original Agreement for all purposes. Signatures of the parties transmitted by facsimile shall be deemed to be their original signatures for all purposes.

Overview of the Transaction

Under the terms of the agreement, Parascript unit owners will receive $80 million in cash and 52 million shares of Mitek common stock. For tax and legal purposes, the transaction is a purchase by Mitek of substantially all of the assets along with associated liabilities of Parascript. For purposes of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP), the transaction is anticipated to be treated as a reverse acquisition, with Parascript acquiring Mitek. The transaction is anticipated to be accretive to earnings per share in the first year post closing with synergies, excluding restructuring charges and amortization of intangible assets.

The combined company's common stock will continue to be traded on the Over the Counter Stock Exchange. It is anticipated that the combined company will take action such that it is eligible to be listed on NASDAQ, and to apply for such listing as soon as practicable.

Funding for this transaction is being provided by a combination of $35 million in subordinated convertible notes and $55 million in senior debt from Plainfield Asset Management, LLC. The subordinated notes will be convertible into approximately 22 million shares of Mitek common stock at a conversion price of $1.60 per share. From the remaining funds obtained from Plainfield, we estimate that approximately $9 million will be used for expenses related to the transaction and $1 million will be used for general working capital purposes. In addition, Plainfield has provided a revolving line of credit for up to $5 million. Upon completion of the combination and on a fully-diluted basis, Mitek shareholders will own approximately 22% of the combined company, Parascript unit holders approximately 55% and Plainfield approximately 23% on an as-if-converted basis.

The combined company created by the transaction will be a Delaware corporation, with executive offices located in Boulder, Colorado. The board of directors of the combined company will be composed of seven (7) members, including DeBello and Gilb, Mitek's Chairman John M. Thornton, Parascript director Aron Katz who will serve as Chairman of the combined company, and three (3) independent directors to be mutually agreed upon by Mitek and Parascript, who meet the requirements of NASDAQ.

The transaction is subject to approval by shareholders of Mitek and the unit holders of Parascript, as well as regulatory authorities and to other customary closing conditions. The transaction is expected to close within approximately 6 months. Until the transaction is completed, both companies will continue to operate their businesses independently.
